

MORNING APPEAL.

Tuesday.....March 20, 1899.

A FACTOR IN LABOR STRUGGLES.

The reason why the Brotherhood of Engineers are liable to succeed in its strike is that they have the necessary financial sinews to stay with the battle for a year.

It requires money to fight capital. The Brotherhood is composed of sober, industrious men who contribute a certain amount to a common fund and when the time comes to use it they know just where it is.

The Brotherhood has about one million dollars in the treasury and it is said can raise three and a half million on a week's notice.

Such a strike handled by one competent man is vastly different from a lawless mob of unskilled laborers trying to fight a wealthy corporation on nothing but wind, threats against property, and rioting in the streets. The money of such a crowd is not in their treasury but has been wasted in gin and beer. Such people cannot hope to win in a struggle against capital, for there is no financial reserve to fall back on.

The railroads have been built up to become powerful corporations, not by robbery and swindling as many claim, but by skillful business management, economy, enterprise and thrift and those who give battle to such a power must have the same requisites to be anywhere near on an equal footing with it. The Brotherhood assert that it has enough money on hand to pay single men $40 a month and married men $75 a month for a year.

If this is true the C. B. & Q. cannot maintain a fight for that length of time without seriously crippling its resources.

TELL IT ALL.

The Eureka Sentinel, whose editor contemplates a run for congress this Fall on the Democratic ticket, has already begun to preach the beauties of Free Trade.

In the last issue of the Sentinel the ladies of Eureka are called upon to "stand in" with Democracy and Free Trade.

The wiley editor baits his argument with the assertion that when the tariff is taken off bonnets, silk, gaiters, etc., the ladies of Eureka will be able to carry themselves in better style than ever at a cost of at least 30 per cent. less than now.

All this is very fine and strictly true but if the tariff is taken off of lead with the rest, the chief industry of Eureka will be destroyed and while bonnets and silks and gaiters are being offered at 30 per cent. below the present cost, the ladies will be unable to invest as their husbands will all be out of employment and skirmishing about to get the bare necessities of life. Eureka would present a nice picture under a free trade regime and the tariff on lead removed.

THE CALIFORNIA IDEA.

C. S. Preble is alternately dubbed Colonel and General by the people of Butte county, Cal., and it is among the probabilities that they will insist on his being a candidate for Governor at the next election.—Journal.

Mr. Preble acquired his first start by getting a lucrative State office and having got his start in Nevada begins to boom California. All well and good.

His partner who got his start the same way not only booms California but has the gall to want to run for Congress.

The APPEAL has no objection to Mr. Young's running for Congress providing he runs from some California district.

People who are not identified with the interests of Nevada have no claim in this State for offices.

Preble and Young should take their gripsacks and permanently locate in California.

—A German patient of the State Insane Asylum "has gone out on a strike." When he heard of the death of Emperor William he promptly quit work and declares that he will not resume until the Kaiser is buried.
